Index
Volume XV

A

Are You Enriching Your Pupils' Vocabularies? G. M. Fox, 52

ARTICULATION. Smallidge, O. E.—Articulation of English between Elementary and Junior High School, 259; Thorpe, C. D.—The Articulation Project of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English, 23

B

Barth, Ethel, and Meighen, M.—Geographic Material in Third-Grade Readers, 299

Basal Readers—C. D. Boney, 133

Becker, May Lamberton—The First Children's Spring Book Festival, 98

Bennett, Annette—Teaching Ten Thousand Children to Read, 125

Better Sp ech Patterns and the English Course—C. E. Weniger, 1

Bible is Easy Reading—I. C. Dolch and E. W. Dolch, 297

Boney, C. De Witt—Basal Readers, 133

BOOK ILLUSTRATION. Thompson, B. J.—On Listening Hill, 217; Warnock, L.—Illustration of Children's Books, 161

BOOK-LISTS. Witty, P. and Kopel, D.—Use of Booklist and Tests in Guiding Children's Reading, 167

BOOK WEEK. Melcher, F. G.—The Opportunity of Book Week, 213

Books for Christmas and the New Year, 319

Bruner, Herbert B.—Evaluation of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition," 62

C

Callihan, Cordia V.—Language Training in the Oklahoma Course of Study, 15

Capron, Clara Hunter—Improving Instruction in Spelling: A Review of Recent Studies, 43

Challenging the Learner—State Normal School, Oswego, N. Y. Summer Session Reading Clinic: Report, 149

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE. Autumn Books, 1938 (lists and reviews), 238; Becker, M. L.—The First Children's Spring Book Festival, 98; Books for Christmas and the New Year (lists and reviews), 319; Hogan M. and Yeschko, M.—Latin American Countries in Children's Literature, 225, 270; Mathis, D. M.—Some Ten Cent Books Suitable for Primary Grades, 233; Melcher, F. G.—Opportunity of Book Week, 213; Overton, J.—Freedom of Choice, 166; Smith, J. I.—New York Children's Books Prior to 1900, 221; Spring Book Festival (editorial), 203; Spring Books, 1938 (list and reviews), 204; Thompson, B. J.—On Listening Hill, 217; Toward a New Literature (editorial), 247; Warnock, L. Illustration of Children's Books, 161

CLASSROOM PROJECTS AND METHODS. Capron, C. H.—Improving Instruction in Spelling, 43; Moran, M. E.—The Court of Books (playlet), 236; Richardine, Sister, and Wilson, F. T.—A Reading Activity in Grade One, 129, 170; Ryan, C. T.—Radio Dramatization in the Middle Grades, 257

COMPOSITION. Abandonment Is no Solution (editorial), 108; Callihan, C. V.—Language Training in the Oklahoma Course of Study, 15; Greene, H. A.—Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition: Discussion, 29, 60; Leonard, E. E.—Helping Children Express Themselves Creatively, 306; McElwain, D.—Based on Science (Shop Talk), 110; Milligan, J. P.—The English Expression Program, 5; Netzer, R. F.—Stimuli for Oral Language, 91; Schwienher, L. M.—Sixth Grade Dictation Material, 27; Smith, H. J.—Letter-Writing as Composition, 103; Soroka, P.—Multiple Composition (Shop Talk), 109; Verner, D.—Opportunities for Incidental Language Teaching, 105

Concept Analysis of Primers and Pre-Primers—R. L. Sims, 302

CONVERSATION. Jacobs, L. B.—Teaching Conversation Through the Conference, 101

Cotner, Edna—English in the Fused Curriculum, 11

CORRELATION OF ENGLISH WITH OTHER SUBJECTS. Leake, E. R.—Suggestions for Correlaton of English with other Subjects, 265; McElwain, D.—Based on Science, 110; Verner, D.—Opportunities for Incidental Language Teaching, 105

COURSES OF STUDY, ENGLISH. Callihan, C. V.—Language Training in the Oklahoma Course of Study, 15; Cotner, E.—English in the Fused Curriculum, 11; Cross, A. J. F.—A New Approach to Teaching the Language Arts, 95; Milligan, J. P.—The English Expression Program, 5; Smallidge, O. E.—Articulation of English Between Elementary and Junior High School, 259; Smallidge, O. E.—The Elementary Child and the English Program, 19; Thrope, C. W.—The Articulation Project of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English, 23

Court of Books (playlet)—M. E. Moran, 236

Cross, A. J. Foy—A New Approach to Teaching the Language Arts, 95

CURRICULUM. Cotner, E.—English in the Fused Curriculum, 11; Thorpe, C. D.—The Articulation Project of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English, 23.

D

Dawson, Mildred A.—Elementary Language Textbooks: Sixth Annual Research Bulletin of the National Conference on Research in English, 83, 199, 275, 309

Dear Father in Heaven (poem)—J. King, 252

DICTIONARY USE. The Dictionary Brought to Life (Shop Talk), 77; Hobbs, V.—The Dictionary as a Spelling Aid, 268

Dolch, E. W.—Phonics and Polysyllables, 120

Dolch, Ida C. and Dolch, E. W.—The Bible is Easy Reading, 297

Durrell, Donald D. and Sullivan, H. B.—Vocabulary Instruction in the Intermediate Grades, 138, 185

Dyer, Clara Axie—A Plan for a Remedial Reading Program, 146, 179

E

Editorial, 37, 74, 108, 159, 203, 247, 285, 318

Eldred, Dora D.—Preparation for my First Demonstration Lesson (Shop Talk), 76

Elementary Child and the English Program—O. E. Smallidge, 19

Elementary School Language Textbooks—M. A. Dawson, 83, 199, 275, 309

English Expression Program—J. P. Milligan, 5

English in the Fused Curriculum—E. Cotner, 11

F

Falk, Ethel Mabie—Discussion of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition," 34

First Children's Spring Book Festival—M. L. Becker, 98

Fox, Gladys M.—Are You Enriching Your Pupils' Vocabularies? 52

Freedom of Choice—J. Overton, 166

G

Geographic Material in Third-Grade Readers—M. Meighen and E. Barth, 299

Gillett, Norma—Insuring Spelling Correctness in Written Composition, 55

Goldsmith, Sadie—Radio's Place in the Teaching of English, 253

Greene, Harry A.—Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition: Discussion, 29, 60

H

Hegge, Thorleif, G.—Remedial Approaches to Reading Difficulties in the Mentally Handicapped, 293

Helping Children Express Themselves Creatively—E. E. Leonard, 306

Hobbs, Valine—The Dictionary as a Spelling Aid, 268

Hogan, Marita, and Yeschko, M.—Latin American Countries in Children's Literature, 225, 270

I

Illustration. See Book Illustration

Illustration of Children's Books—L. Warnock, 161

Improving Instruction in Spelling—C. H. Capron, 43

Insuring Spelling Correctness in Written Composition—N. Gillett, 55

J

Jacobs, Leland B.—Teaching Conversation Through the Conference, 101

Johnson, Roy Ivan—Rollo La Verne Lyman, 1878-1937 (editorial), 74

K

Keener, Edward E.—Teaching Primary Reading by the Non-Oral Method, 291

King, Joe—Dear Father in Heaven (poem), 252

Kopel, David, and Witty, P.—Use of Book-lists and Tests in Guiding Children's Reading, 167

L

Language. See Composition

Language Training in the Oklahoma Course of Study—C. V. Callihan, 15

Latin American Countries in Children's Literature. M. Hogan and M. Yeschko, 225, 270

Leake, Edna R.—Suggestions or Correlation of English with other Subjects, 265

Leonard, Eunice E.—Helping Children Express Themselves Creatively, 306

LETTER-WRITING. Smith, H. J.—Letter-writing as Composition, 103

Literature for Children. See Children's Literature

Lyman, R. L.—Discussion of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition," 29

LYMAN, R. L.—Johnson, R. I.—Rollo La Verne Lyman, 1878-1937 (editorial), 74

M

McElwain, Dora—Based on Science (Shop Talk), 110

Mathis, Dorothy—Some Ten Cent Books Suitable for Primary Grades, 233

Meighen, Mary, and Barth, E.—Geographic Material in Third-Grade Readers, 299

Melcher, Frederick G.—The Opportunity of Book Week, 213

Milligan, John P.—The English Expression Program in the Bloomfield, N. J. Public Schools, 5

Moran, Mabel E.—The Court of Books (playlet), 236

N

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RESEARCH IN ENGLISH. Dawson, M. A.—Elementary School Language Textbooks: Sixth Annual Research Bulletin, 83, 199, 275, 309; Greene, H. A.—Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition: Fifth Annual Research Bulletin: Discussion, 29, 60

Netzer, R. F.—Stimuli for Oral Language: An Evaluation of Materials, 91

New Approach to Teaching the Language Arts—A. J. F. Cross, 95

New York Children's Books Prior to 1900. J. I. Smith, 221

O

On Listening Hill—B. J. Thompson, 217

Opportunities for Incidental Language Teaching—D. Verner, 105

Opportunity of Book Week—F. G. Melcher, 213

Overton, Jacqueline—Freedom of Choice, 166

P

Pease, Marion O.—Spelling Errors in the Letters of a Seven-Year-Old, 57

PHONICS. Dolch, E. W.—Phonics and Polysyllables, 120

Plan for a Remedial Reading Program—C. A. Dyer, 146, 179

Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition: Discussion—H. A. Greene, 29, 60

R

RADIO IN EDUCATION. Goldsmith, S.—Radio's Place in the Teaching of English, 253; Ryan, C. T.—Radio Dramatization in the Middle Grades, 257

Ragland, Fannie J.—Evaluation of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition," 65

READING. Bennett, A.—Teaching Ten Thousand Children to Read, 125; Boney, C. D.—Basal Readers, 133; Dolch, E. W. Phonics and Polysyllables, 120; Dolch, I. C. and Dolch, E. W.—The Bible is Easy Reading, 297; Keener, E. E.—Teaching Primary Reading by the Non-Oral Method, 291; Meighen, M. and Barth, E.—Geographic Material in Third-Grade Readers, 299; Richardine, Sister, and Wilson, F. T.—A Reading Activity in Grade One, 129, 170; Sims, R. L.—Concept Analysis of Primers and Pre-Primers, 302; Teaching Reading Without Books (editorial), 159; Uhl, W. L.—The Unification of Reading in the Intermediate Grades, 117

READING, REMEDIAL. Dyer, C. A.—Plan for a Remedial Reading Program, 146, 179; Hegge, T. G.—Remedial Approaches to Reading Difficulties in the Mentally Handicapped, 293; State Normal School, Oswego, N. Y. Summer Session Reading Clinic: Report, 149

Remedial Approaches to Reading Difficulties in the Mentally Handicapped—T. G. Hegge, 293

Reviews and Abstracts, 79

Richardine, Sister, and Wilson, F. T.—A. Reading Activity in Grade One, 129, 170

Ryan, Calvin T.—Radio Dramatizations in the Middle Grades, 257

S

Schwienher, Lucy M. Sixth Grade Dictation Material, 27

SEREDY, KATE. Thompson, B. J.—On Listening Hill, 217

Sims, Ruth L.—Concept Analysis of Primers and Pre-Primers, 302

Sixth Grade Dictation Material—L. M. Schwienher, 27

Shop Talk, 76, 109, 246, 286

Smallidge, Olive E.—Articulation of English Between Elementary and Junior High School, 259; The Elementary Child and the English Program, 19

Smith, Harriet J.—Letter-Writing as Composition, 103

Smith, Jerome Irving—New York Children's Books Prior to 1900, 221

Some Ten Cent Books Suitable for Primary Grades—D. M. Mathis, 233

Soroka, Pauline—Multiple Composition (Shop Talk), 109

SPEECH EDUCATION. Jacobs, L. B.—Teaching Conversation Through the Conference, 101; Weniger, C. E.—Better Speech Patterns and the English Course, 1

SPELLING. Capron, C. H.—Improving Instruction in Spelling, 43; Gillett, N.—Insuring Spelling Correctness in Written Composition, 55; Hobbs, V.—The Dictionary as a Spelling Aid, 268; Pease, M. O.—Spelling Errors in the Letters of a Seven-Year-Old, 57

Spring Book Festival. Becker, M. L.—The First Children's Spring Book Festival, 98

State Normal School, Oswego, N. Y. Summer Session Reading Clinic: Report—Challenging the Learner, 149

Stimuli for Oral Language: An Evaluation of Certain Materials—R. F. Netzer, 91

Suggestions for Correlation of English with other Subjects—E. R. Leake, 265

Sullivan, Helen Blair, and Durrell, D. D.—Vocabulary Instruction in the Intermediate Grades, 138, 185

T

Teaching Conversation Through the Conference—L. B. Jacobs, 101

Teaching Primary Reading by the Non-Oral Method—E. E. Keener, 291

Teaching Ten Thousand Children to Read—A. Bennett, 125

TEXTBOOKS. Boney, C. D.—Basal Readers, 133; Dawson, M. A.—Elementary School Language Textbooks, 83, 199, 275, 309; Meighen, M. and Barth, E.—Geographic Material in Third-Grade Readers, 299; Sims, R. L.—Concept Analysis of Primers and Pre-Primers, 302

Thompson, Blanche Jennings—On Listening Hill, 217

Thorpe, Clarence De Witt—The Articulation Project of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English, 23

Trabue, M. R.—Evaluation of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition", 60

U

Uhl, Willis L.—The Unification of Reading in the Intermediate Grades, 117

Unification of Reading in the Intermediate Grades—W. L. Uhl, 117

Use of Book-Lists and Tests in Guiding Children's Reading—P. Witty and D. Kopel, 167

J1

V

Verner, Dorothy—Opportunities for Incidental Language Teaching, 105

Vocabulary. Dictionary Brought to Life (Shop Talk), 77; Durrell, D. D. and Sullivan, H. B.—Vocabulary Instruction in the Intermediate Grades, 138, 185; Fox, G. M.—Are You Enriching Your Pupils' Vocabularies? 52; Richardine, Sister, and Wilson, F.—A Reading Activity in Grade One, 129, 170

W

Warnock, Lucile—Illustration of Children's Books, 161

Weniger, Charles E.—Better Speech Patterns and the English Course, 1

Wilson, Frank T. and Richardine, Sister—A Reading Activity in Grade One, 129, 170

Witty, Paul and Kopel, D.—The Use of Book-Lists and Tests in Guiding Children's Reading, 167

Y

Yeschko, Margaret, and Hogan, M.—Latin American Countries in Children's Literature, 225, 270

Young, Clare M.—Evaluation of "Principles of Method in Elementary English Composition", 70.